Applicable To: All Employees, Interns, Trainees, and Contract Staff of Oppty TechHub Pvt Ltd

---

1. PURPOSE

This Human Resources Policy Manual establishes the employment policies, procedures, and standards applicable to all employees of Oppty TechHub Pvt Ltd.

The objective of this policy is to:

- Maintain discipline and accountability in the workplace
- Ensure transparency in employee management
- Promote professionalism and productivity
- Define employee rights, responsibilities, and expectations

All employees are required to read and adhere to the policies mentioned in this document.

2. SCOPE

This policy applies to:

- Interns and Trainees
- Probationary Employees
- Full-Time Employees
- Contractual Employees

The company reserves the right to amend or update these policies at its discretion.

3. EMPLOYMENT CLASSIFICATION

Employees of Oppty TechHub Pvt Ltd are categorized as follows:

3.1 Intern / Trainee

Employees undergoing training or internship for a defined duration before full employment.

3.2 Probationary Employee

New employees will generally be placed on a probation period of 3 to 6 months, during which their performance, discipline, and suitability will be evaluated.

3.3 Confirmed Employee

Employees who successfully complete probation and are confirmed in their roles.

3.4 Contract Employee

4. WORKING HOURS

- Standard Working Days: 6 days per week
- Weekly Off: Second and Fourth Saturday, Sunday
- Daily Working Hours: 9 hours including break

Employees are expected to strictly adhere to company working hours.

Repeated late reporting or early departure without approval may lead to disciplinary action.

5. ATTENDANCE POLICY

All employees must mark their attendance through the company's designated attendance system.

Employees are responsible for:

- Reporting to work on time
- Informing their reporting manager in case of absence
- Seeking prior approval for planned leave

Failure to report to work without proper communication may be treated as unauthorized absence.

6. LEAVE POLICY

The leave policy ensures a balance between employee welfare and operational efficiency.

Weekends and company-declared holidays are not counted as leave days.

6.1 Monthly Leave Allowance

Employees may take up to 2 leaves in a calendar month without salary deduction, subject to approval by their reporting manager.

6.2 Leave Deduction Rule

If an employee takes more than 2 leaves in a calendar month, the following rules will apply:

1. All leaves taken during that month will be treated as Leave Without Pay (LOP).
2. The first two leaves will also be converted to LOP if the employee exceeds the limit of two leaves.
3. Paid Leave Balance cannot be utilized if an employee exceeds two leaves in a given month.
4. All leaves will be deducted at the rate of 1.5 days salary per leave.

5. The deduction will apply to the total number of leaves taken during the month, not only the additional leaves.

Example

Leaves Taken	Deduction
1 Leave	No Deduction
2 Leaves	No Deduction
3 Leaves	4.5 Days Salary Deduction
4 Leaves	6 Days Salary Deduction
5 Leaves	7.5 Days Salary Deduction

Example:
If an employee takes 3 leaves, all 3 leaves will be marked as LOP, and salary deduction will be 3 × 1.5 = 4.5 days salary deduction.

6.3 Excessive Leave Policy

If an employee takes more than 6 leaves in a single month, the following actions may be taken:

- The employee will be placed under a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).
- The employee's attendance and performance will be formally reviewed.
- Employment terms may be reconsidered which may include:
  - Extension of probation
  - Role reassessment
  - Salary structure review
  - Termination of employment if improvement is not observed.

7. HOLIDAY POLICY

Employees are entitled to company-declared holidays which may include:

- National Holidays
- Festival Holidays
- Company Declared Holidays

The annual holiday calendar will be communicated at the beginning of each calendar year.

8. SANDWICH LEAVE POLICY

If an employee takes leave immediately before and after a weekly off or holiday, the intervening weekly off or holiday may also be counted as leave at the discretion of management.

9. LATE COMING POLICY

Employees are expected to maintain punctuality.

- Late arrival beyond the permitted grace time may be recorded.
- Repeated late arrivals may result in half-day deduction or disciplinary action.
